Helping your employees move home

Whether it's one person changing jobs within your organisation, or a number of staff - if they need to move home then Shoosmiths can help.

We are amongst the leading conveyancing solicitors in the UK. Our service is designed to help reduce the strain of moving and to give you and your employees the assurance that you are placing their move in the safe hands of relocation conveyancing experts.

- Our dedicated, friendly staff are available 7 days a week and in the evenings, enabling home move conversations to take place outside typical work hours
- There is no need to visit our offices. Moves can be progressed over the telephone and by email and the position tracked online, at times convenient to your employees
- Location is no obstacle
- We are specialists in dealing with relocation matters

Our price is fixed so there are no financial surprises and if your organisation is paying for the move as part of a relocation package, we can offer you a standard fixed price for all moves no matter what size, type, location or value of the property.
